POLICE DEPARTMENT.

No. 2001—Circular 239, dated 4th December 1897.

Descriptive Roll of a woman wanted by the Chikmagalur Taluk Police, who absconded after poisoning her husband (Crime No. 4-32 of 1897).

Name—Chikki.
Father's name—Mallura.
Caste—Holeyar or Balagai.
Age.—15 or 20 years.
Residence—Nagenhalli, Chikmagalur taluk.
General appearance—Stout and strong, brown colour, round face, height about 4½ feet.
Cloth and jewels worn at the time of departure—A red cotton "Seere" with white interlines. Silver rings on toes. Nose ring or Nattu with a red stone. Two hollow silver bangles on each wrist, and a string of black beads in the neck.
Personal peculiarities—The right arm could not be stretched to its full length, which is the result of an attack of small-pox she suffered from when a girl; no pock marks are visible now.

2. The highest bidder shall, immediately on the contract being knocked down to him, pay a deposit either in cash or currency notes, equal to the amount of four monthly instalments of the entire contract amount. If he fails to do so, the contract will be re-sold at once at his risk and he will be held liable for any loss that may be caused to Government by the re-sale.

3. The accepted bidder shall enter on his contract at once and shall pay his first monthly instalment on or before the 15th February 1898, and all subsequent monthly instalments on or before the 15th of each successive month, such monthly payments being made without reference to the amount deposited. Instalments not paid within the date fixed will be charged with interest at 6 per cent per annum from due date to date of payment.

4. Local cess of one anna per rupee will be charged on the monthly instalments to be paid by the contractor.

5. Should there be failure or delay in the payment of the said instalments for two consecutive months, the contract will be liable to be cancelled summarily and re-sold at the risk of the defaulting contractor, the deposit amount being forfeited to Government and any arrears due being recovered as land revenue.

6. The contractor shall not cut, remove or damage the lac trees from which he obtains lac.

7. Should any land containing jalari trees and unoccupied at the time of the sale be taken up for cultivation during the currency of the contract, the contractor shall have the right to collect lac from such trees up to the close of his contract.

8. Branches of jalari and other trees that may be lopped for propagation purposes shall be the property of the Forest Department, and the same may be purchased by the contractor, if required, on payment of seigniorage at 6 annas per cart-load.

9. The Deputy Commissioner reserves to himself the power of accepting or rejecting any bid without assigning any reason for so doing.

The 15th November 1897.

It is hereby notified that in satisfaction of the arrears of land revenue due by Nilakantaradhya and other vrittidars of Anehalli village, revenue defaulters, the undermentioned immovable property will be sold by public auction at the Town of Shimoga in the taluk of Shimoga in the Shimoga district, on the 31st December 1897.

The sale will commence at 11 A. M., and the property will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The amount of revenue payable by the purchaser on the property for the whole of the year 1896-97 is Rs. 11-11-1 as shown in detail in the statement at foot.

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit twenty-five per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of the sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the property shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case, to deposit a written authority signed by their principals ; otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed if the defaulter, or any person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the property, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the property will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale, signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner, will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent.

9. Provided, parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to Government against his order within the time prescribed by law, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
